Comments: Hello to all the wonderful guys from A2/12 & D2/12 who are on here welcoming back all those people who need it. I was at the 1st reunion we had in Las Vegas. I've gone up to WI to see Deni Welker, he was my RTO, went to CA to see Doc Blakely, stopped by NV to see Johnny Olerin then found Wayne Sinclair from El Dorado, AR. Then when Doc called my with info on Earnie Tuggle wow that was to much I went up to North NE to see him again, Ron Hendricks stopped by either on his to or/from CO to see me. One of these years I am going to see Dr. H Paul Rhodes, in Virginia. One of these days I will made it to Atlanta to visit with Ron Hendricks and Ed Domaleski and up to Chattanooga to see Dick Newport.

Thanks to the journal of Tony Jackowski I recall mostly my time with Company A as the first platoon leader. Did a couple months as a liason officer with the ARVN's then back to the field with Co D. Finally, retired enough to attend the reunion this June. Looking forward to reconnecting although don't look for me to remember much. Charlie Company, thanks for includings us "outsiders" in the reunion. Duanne Swift

Comments:	Thanks to both Doc Blakely and Sarge Krause for fixing the spelling of my name in the archive. I know that a tremendous amount of dedication and energy go into maintaining this valuable resource. I would like to find David Swift, SP5, FO's RTO who served with LT Tim Jachowski, FO. People like Swifty and Baker, the Blooper Man, could always be counted on to assist the medic when someone was down. What a blessing. It's not always easy to recall the names of buddies from those times. I rarely allowed myself to learn people's true names, limiting myself to their nicknames. It was easier to do my job if I didn't get too close. Terry Russel and John Chavez taught me that hard lesson in JAN '70. Now I find that it impedes my efforts to reconnect. If people who logon would include their nicknames, and specialties, such as RTO, grenadier or machine gunner, it would help. Thanks.
