The 25th Infantry Division personnel were particularly remarkable during the following operations: Atlanta, 18 November 1967—23 December 1967 in the Iron Triangle Area; Yellowstone, 8 December 1967—24 January 1968 in War Zone C; Saratoga, 8 December 1967—10 March 1968 in areas adjacent to Hau Nghia, Long An, and Binh Duong Provinces; Toan Thang (Phase I), 7 April 1968—1 June 1968 in Tay Ninh, Hau Nghia, Gia Dinh, Long An, and Binh Duong Provinces; Toan Thang (Phase II), 1 June 1968—30 August 1968 in Tay Ninh, Long An, Binh Duong, Hau Nghia, and Gia Dinh Provinces. During these operations, although confronted by intense hostile fire and unfavorable terrain conditions, the courageous men of the 25th Infantry Division, with extensive combat experience and adamant resolution to fight until victory, fought stubbornly and with great calmness to destroy many Viet Cong and North Vietnamese Regular Army units, killing more than 12,000 of the enemy in action, capturing thousands of weapons, along with large quantities of ammunition, clothing, equipment, documents, and destroying many important enemy bases and installations. Units of the 25th Infantry Division were also highly effective in overwhelming two all-out enemy attacks during the Tet period and May 1968, and in thwarting Viet Cong attempts to attack Tay Ninh Province late in July 1968, inflicting heavy losses upon the enemy. Simultaneous with their military efforts, the 25th Infantry Division personnel also partici-
